

greetings/salutations

Kunal Khurana

2025-01-31

In today's lecture, we've explored the richness of the French language, from its cultural nuances to practical everyday use. We discussed greetings like "Bonjour" for daytime and "Bonsoir" for evenings, as well as the formal use of "Madame" (for women) and "Monsieur" (for men). We also covered daily conversations, such as asking "Comment ça va?" (How are you?) or "Où est la boulangerie?" (Where is the bakery?). Additionally, we went over basic household items like "la table" (the table), "le lit" (the bed), and "le frigo" (the fridge) to help you navigate French-speaking environments with ease. Whether you're a language enthusiast or just starting out, these essentials are a great foundation for building your French skills!